THE ST. PAUL GLOBE, SUNDAY, JULY 24, 1904

DRAMATIC

YAMATO-DAMASHU

Written for The Globe by Nogiyori Makabe

DRAMA OF TRADITION

Washington, July 23.—In reply to the representations of Mr. T. S. Shishiki, United States Consul General, and the American Chamber of Commerce, the Japanese Minister in Washington, Mr. Seiro Tsuda, announced that the famous and historic Yama­to-Damashu, the story of the unia­tion of the Yamato and Damashu tribes, will be presented next week at the Grand Opera House by the famous troupe of Nippon Kyo­gen Troupe, under the direction of Prof. Seiro Tsuda.

The story of the union of the Yamato and Damashu tribes, with its stirring battle scenes and its emotional life story, will provide an interesting subject for the presentation on the stage. It is a story of love and hate, of good and evil, and of the triumph of good over evil.

The actors will be well chosen, and the sets and costumes will be of the highest quality. The music will be original and suitable to the action of the play. The production will be a masterpiece of theatrical art, and will be a fitting tribute to the Japanese people and their culture.

Elaine Williams

With the Fawcett Company "East Lynne" at the Grand

MISS EVELYN VAUGHAN

Who is Miss Evelyn Vaughan?

Evelyn Vaughan is the leading lady of the Fawcett Company, and is one of the most noted actresses on the American stage. She has played in many of the great productions of the past, and has received the highest praise for her acting.

Miss Vaughan has a sweet, clear voice, and her acting is always natural and effective. She has a wonderful command of her material, and is able to bring out the best in every part she plays.

She is a fine actress, and is always in demand. She has played in many of the greatest productions of the past, and has received the highest praise for her acting.

Yamato-Damashu

A Dramatic Production

The story of the union of the Yamato and Damashu tribes, with its stirring battle scenes and its emotional life story, will provide an interesting subject for the presentation on the stage. It is a story of love and hate, of good and evil, and of the triumph of good over evil.

The actors will be well chosen, and the sets and costumes will be of the highest quality. The music will be original and suitable to the action of the play. The production will be a masterpiece of theatrical art, and will be a fitting tribute to the Japanese people and their culture.

Did You Ever

"Did You Ever" is a drama of the life of a young girl, who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty. She is a sweet, innocent girl, who is loved by many, but who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty.

We Did It

"We Did It" is a drama of the life of a young girl, who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty. She is a sweet, innocent girl, who is loved by many, but who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty.

Is the St. Louis Fair

"Is the St. Louis Fair" is a drama of the life of a young girl, who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty. She is a sweet, innocent girl, who is loved by many, but who is faced with the problem of choosing between love and duty.

The St. Louis Fair is a real World's Fair.

Why?

The St. Louis Fair is a real World's Fair because it is a large and well-organized exposition, with many interesting exhibits and attractions. It is a great event, and will be a fitting tribute to the American people.

About getting there?

The St. Louis Fair is a real World's Fair because it is a large and well-organized exposition, with many interesting exhibits and attractions. It is a great event, and will be a fitting tribute to the American people.

The St. Louis Fair is a real World's Fair because it is a large and well-organized exposition, with many interesting exhibits and attractions. It is a great event, and will be a fitting tribute to the American people.